The first of these is the proposition to abandon the canal up to Paterson, the second to abandon the canal to a point within the limits of Bloomfield, and there deflect into Second river, the third to conserve the canal for a parkway, fourth to conserve the entire canal just as it is and electrically operate it, and fifth, to delay action on any proposition until the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is forced from its present hold on the canal property.

Bloomfield vs. Caldwell.

The Bloomfield Baseball Club will play the Caldwell Athletics in the second game of the series at Morris Park this afternoon.

Those who witnessed the game last Saturday at Caldwell saw one of the best contests ever played on that or any other diamond. The players of both teams were in fine condition and though several misplays were made on both sides, the spectators were treated to as great an exhibition of the national game as one would wish to see.

For Bloomfield the hitting of Kelly, Hambacker and Wiley was a feature, while Hartman and Adams starred for Caldwell.

Both Hipfel and Girard pitched good ball and their support was excellent, except in one or two innings.

This afternon the two teams will line up the same as last Saturday, with the exception that "Doc" Scanlon, formerly of the Brooklyn National League team, will pitch for the local team, and with favorable weather a good crowd should be on hand.

The Bloomfield fans turned out in goodly numbers at Caldwell and the members of the team appreciate their loyalty very much, and will look for them and many others at the game this afternon.
